

SHWETA P RAINA

PRINTMAKER & PAINTER

As a freelance printmaker and painter, I am passionate about the conceptual possibilities of expressing my world through various mediums. I am engaged in my studio practice in Faridabad(Delhi NCR).

As a trained printmaker, I have always enjoyed exploring the nature of various surfaces like zinc plate, lithography stone, wood and Linoleum. At present I paint extensively on wood, paper, paper pulp and bring them all together. This exploration has developed my visual language further. As an artist, I grow with each work I create and look forward to exhibiting my work across the country.

With years of teaching experience, I enjoy mentoring the younger generation. I take creative sessions in my studio honing their skill and incorporating visual arts as a medium to develop a child's emotional intelligence enabling him/her to have a balanced approach to life.
